Washington 25, D. C.

Attention: Mr. Thomas K. Hall, Chief, Criminal Section

Dear Mr. Yeagley:

This is in reply to your letter of 9 October 1958 regarding the subpoena served upon this Agency by the defense in the case

As indicated in your letter, there have been several conversations between Mr. James J. Featherstone of your division and [redacted] of this office. This will confirm the final determination by this Agency that any documents relating to this subpoena which are in the possession of this Agency and which are not otherwise available to the defense would not be available for production in open court in view of the statutory obligations imposed upon the Director of Central Intelligence to protect intelligence sources and methods.

Very truly yours,
